

FOURTEENTH YEAR.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1897.

TWO CENTS.

Regrets Will Be in Order Shortly! Our $13.50 Suit Sale and $3.95 Pant Sale will close with the store at 10:30 Saturday night. Loss is too great.

We know you like our way of doing business; it is generously square. When a man feels that a merchant is telling him the truth he feels comfortable. Everybody feels that way in our store. Everybody is treated fairly and squarely. Two of the good things we have for our patrons are those—

Tailor-made Pants at $3.95 And those Suits at -- $9.45

Odd prices? Yes, but the values are oddly excellent. You would expect to pay double those prices for the same excellence in materials and workmanship. We cannot multiply words to laud the goodness of these two offerings. Just fix your mind on a swell pair of trousers that cost you $5.00 to $8.00 and a fine business suit to cost you $12 to $15 and then come in and be surprised at these extremely good things at $3.95 and $9.45, respectively. You save several days' wages on the purchase of the pants and suit and you need the money.

NOBODY WILL EVER HAVE SUCH CHANCES IN YEARS AGAIN. BUY FOR NEXT SEASON IF NOT WANTED NOW.

WISCONSIN SOLONS. Say a Sheriff Can Have But One Term.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 25.—An attempt in the assembly to bill the bill repealing the tax on horse tax was defeated by a vote of 48 to 49. Discussion over this bill was heated, there being a majority committee report on it. Agent of Superior, spoke in favor of the measure. The affairs committee recommended a tenth mill state tax in accordance with the governor's financial message. The medical bill came in with a report for indefinite postponement. In the senate the favorable report for the state tax came in, after which Senator Mills introduced his bill providing for the investment of state funds.

THE TURKISH TROOPS. Heavy Bodies Being Massed on the Frontier.

Sabonier, Feb. 25.—The massing of Turkish troops and munitions of war on the frontier is proceeding with feverish haste. All the soldiers on Russian batteries have been recalled and cavalry and two battalions of infantry have gone from here, Monastir and elsewhere to Klussowa. Two additional battalions of infantry have reached Kofina. The reports from Smyrna, Ikoniu, Trebizond and elsewhere in Anatolia are on their way here for the frontier, where a total of six divisions will be formed, with headquarters at Ellassona.

This afternoon the bill was sent to the senate where it was promised that that body would promptly pass it.

MILWAUKEE BANK FAILS. Milwaukee, Feb. 25.—Steps were taken to wind up the affairs of the Commercial bank today, when stockholders of the company filed an application with the circuit court asking for the appointment of a receiver. The bank failed in 1895. It afterwards opened its doors, but later went into liquidation. The bank owes depositors $285,000, and its assets only amount to $5000. The stockholders will be called upon to pay the obligations.

NEGLECTED GRAVES. Daughters of the Revolution Will Fix Them Up.

Washington, Feb. 25.—When the session of the Daughters of the American Revolution opened today Mrs. Stevenson, president general, read greetings from the regent at Honolulu, Hawaii, and a special invitation from Representative Washington of Tennessee to the society to attend the Tennessee centennial exposition. Mr. Washington stated that thirty days had been set aside, beginning Oct. 18, for the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, and that the routine would be on the anniversary of the battle of Kings Mountain.

ST. PAUL PROTESTS. Washington, Feb. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—A protest of the St. Paul chamber of commerce against the removal of the office of supervising inspector of steam vessels from St. Paul was presented by Senator Davis today; also one from the Union Veterans' league, of Minneapolis, against including members of boards of examining surgeons in the civil service.

DEBATE

Douglas Maximum Freight Rate Bill Brought a Discussion at St. Paul.

Duluth Delegation is Divided Schmidt Opposing and Laybourn Favoring.

Debate Takes Up All the Morning Session Day in the Senate.

St. Paul, Feb. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—In the house today the committee on taxation favorably reported the Reeves bill for the taxation of mines and property with slight amendments. The resolutions of the Duluth chamber of commerce against those bills which were read to the committee last night by Mr. Laybourn were presented to the house by that member this morning. Mr. West's bill, reducing the horse thief bounty, was indefinitely postponed on recommendation of the committee on general legislation. Mr. Donnelly's bill creating a state board of surveyors was reported without recommendation. Senator Stebbin's bill authorizing removal and reburial of bodies in unused and abandoned cemeteries, being almost at a specific place in Ormside county, was about to be passed under a suspension of their rules when Mr. Hicks feared it might stir up old bones in other places and it was laid aside temporarily.

The Douglas bill, fixing a maximum freight rate on grain and coal, brought two reports from the committee on commerce, one favorably and the other unfavorably. The majority of the committee, Messrs. Fosnes, Egleby, Stone, Brastetter, McGrath, Laybourn and McMillan favored the bill and submitted a formal report in support of it. They found that existing rates are excessive, unjust and unrestricted, and are much higher than under similar conditions in other states. A number of amendments to the committee failed to show similar high rates elsewhere. House and senate members were watered many times and they cite illustrations. They recommended some minor amendments to the bill.

Mr. Torson moved to adopt the majority report. Mr. Fosnes moved to substitute that the minority report be adopted. Mr. Jacobson moved to amend by having the bill referred to the committee on the one hand and the committee on the other. The amendment was not taken up. Mr. Jacobson's motion was lost and the bill passed. Mr. Laybourn charged that the railroads had forced their employees to protest against the bill, though the same men honestly did not oppose the bill. The farming class, who paid $15,000,000 for charges every year were entitled to some consideration. The question was whether the people were justly dealt with. The railroad made excessive profits and their claim of small profits came from their watered stock. He felt that it was possible to show excessive charges and in common fairness, appealed for a hearing on the merits of the bill.

Mr. Johnson moved to reconsider the vote on the Jacobson measure. Mr. Schmidt said he opposed the report, but did so reluctantly because Mr. Laybourn had signed it. Mr. Riley said he thought the matter one for judicial determination and not for legislative action.

Mr. Schmidt took the ground that the most of the railroads in Minnesota lost money last year, insisting that those who talked on the other side overlooked the expense of terminals. He denied the report of big dividends, insisting that the old Manitowish paid a dividend last year, probably getting it from the sales of lands, but that the official reports of their commission showed no dividends paid by the Great Northern or Northern Pacific. He read various legal authorities in support of his contention that this was a matter for judicial and not legislative action. The Great Northern and Northern Pacific, he said, were not in Wisconsin and state legislation could not touch interstate business. The bill could be applied to West Superior and the railroads were thrown on the defensive by the Minnesota and Wisconsin legislatures and sought protection in their rights as interstate roads.

Mr. Laybourn said he had signed the minority report and he was willing to stay by it. He fully believed the people of his district wanted just such a measure as this. He thought legislation should be the greatest good for the greatest number. Without con-ing to a vote a recess was then taken until 2 o'clock. Immediately on being called to order after the recess the house resumed the discussion of the maximum rate matter, and are still at it at 3:30. Mr. Douglas being at this time more talking in favor of the minority report.

IN THE SENATE. St. Paul, Feb. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—In the senate today the following bills were introduced: Ester, authorizing town supervisors to regulate the use of billiard and pool tables. Judiciary. Wyman, to improve navigation in lakes. Referred to Hennepin county delegation. Wyman, to amend laws relating to state board of health. Public health. Pottinger, relating to practice in justice courts. Judiciary. Wyman, to amend primary election laws. Elections. Wyman, to amend law permitting agreements by executors, etc. Judiciary. Wyman, authorizing levy of taxes for school purposes. Education. Wyman, abolishing inebriate ward at Rochester asylum. Temperance.

REDUCED THE AMOUNT. Senate Cut the Appropriation For Duluth Harbor.

Washington, Feb. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The senate committee has further amended the sundry civil bill by cutting down the appropriation for the Duluth-Superior harbor from $500,000 to $275,000.

Mr. Towne, who secured the insertion of the appropriation in the bill as reported to the house, said he would have the senate committee reconsider its action. If the people of Duluth and Superior will urge the importance of this matter upon the Minnesota and Wisconsin senators, the appropriation of $500,000 may yet be secured.

FRANCIS APPROVES IT. Towne's Bill Regarding Offered and Unoffered Lands.

Washington, Feb. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The secretary of the interior today recommended to congress the passage of Representative Towne's bill to abolish the difference between offered and unoffered lands under the timber land act.

This bill cannot pass at this session but Mr. Towne says that Judge Morris may be able to expedite the bill at extra session. This is not likely in view of Speaker Reed's well-known intention to appoint only such committees at the extra session as will be necessary to deal with the tariff bill.

WRIGHT'S REPORT. Mr. Towne Determined to Have It Printed.

Washington, Feb. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Towne is determined to have Inspector Wright's report on the one land investigation in print before the end of this session. He said today that if the report was not received today or tomorrow he would send it to the printer and demand that it be sent to the house immediately.

THEY DO NOT AGREE. Davis and Nelson Disagree on Endorsements.

Washington, Feb. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—There is good authority for predicting that Senator Davis will not have everything his own way in discussing the Illinois case before the senate. Mr. Morgan and Mr. Hale have disagreed about the endorsement of several candidates for important offices, and members of the house have disagreed with both the senators.

MAY BE RACY. Russell & Miller Milling Company Receivership Matter.

St. Paul, Feb. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—A Fargo, N. D., dispatch to the Dispatch says: The position of the Northwestern National bank and other creditors of the Russell & Miller milling company, for the removal of Messrs. Russell & Miller, is being held up by the United States court before Judge Russell today.

THE CASE WAS FAIRLY STARTED this morning, but intimations of some sensational affairs later on were given. In the petition for the removal of Russell & Miller, creditors named Walter Fowler as a good man to succeed them and it is concerning him that it is alleged ray evidence will be introduced.

The representatives of the receivers will attempt to show that Fowler while manager and treasurer of the Superior mill wrecked the institution and was recently fired from his position as vice president of the Northwestern National bank. Superior's bankruptcy is being held up by the speculation in pork, flax and oats. Great interest is being taken in the case.

McCook NOT IN IT. Will Not Be a Member of McKinley's Cabinet.

New York, Feb. 25.—The Commercial Advertiser this afternoon says: Col. John A. McCook will not be New York's representative in the next president's cabinet. Col. McCook, it is announced today, has been considering an offer to become the secretary of the interior and has declined the honor. Senator-elect Platt was informed by Col. McCook of his intention.

OCEAN STEAMSHIPS. New York Arrived: Victoria, Naples; Trave, Bremen. Liverpool Arrived: Germanic, New York.

A STRIKE THAT FAILED. Pittsburg, Feb. 25.—The river miners' strike is a failure; not more than 1000 men are out.

INTEREST

Senate Galleries Crowded With People to Hear the Cuban Debate.

Morgan Eulogized Gen. Lee as a Man of Courage and Honor.

Did Not Wonder the President Desired to Conceal His Policy.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The serenity of the senate when the session opened today gave little evidence of the exciting scenes of yesterday. The galleries were filled in anticipation of a renewal of hostilities, but the bustle was soon directed into routine channels, with the understanding that the Sanguly Cuban resolution would come up as soon as the business was finished.

The house bill was passed to prevent trespassing in and for the protection of the national parks. The Indian appropriation bill was then taken up, and the amendment referring the attorney's claims against the Indian country. An amendment proposed by him retained the committee plan of a federal judicial system all over the country, but struck out the important provision for town allotment and allotment of lands among the Indians. The amendment was accepted by Mr. Pettigrew, in charge of the bill. The amendment was a whole not perfect when the bill was laid aside at 1 o'clock.

This brought the Cuban resolutions before the senate. By this time the galleries were full. The Cuban resolutions were taken up at 1 o'clock. Mr. Hale led the charge against the resolutions. In the course of a sharp parliamentary struggle was proceeding when the Indian bill and moved that this be done. But it was held that the Cuban resolution had the right of way.

In the confusion Mr. Frye, who stirred the galleries to fever heat yesterday, stepped into the middle aisle and made another statement. He hoped, he said, that the Sanguly resolution would be allowed to go to the calendar without further resistance.

Although the Indian bill was technically before the senate, the debate on the Cuban resolutions before the senate. By this time the galleries were full. The Cuban resolutions were taken up at 1 o'clock. Mr. Hale led the charge against the resolutions. In the course of a sharp parliamentary struggle was proceeding when the Indian bill and moved that this be done. But it was held that the Cuban resolution had the right of way.

Mr. Call spoke of the Ruiz case and presented a resolution calling for information on it, but it went over on order. Mr. Hale urged the necessity of giving all the time possible to appropriate bills in order to get them through. Mr. Morgan replied saying Mr. Hale had threatened a filibuster on the Sanguly resolution. Though Mr. Morgan refused to yield to interruptions by Senators Hour and Hale, saying that Mr. Hour could not interfere with him under the prestige of his fame and position. He eulogized Consul Lee as a man of courage and honor. In the course of Mr. Morgan's remarks he said the only information of Sanguly's pardon came from the newspapers. Nothing was received from the state department. He did not wonder that the Cuban resolutions were pending in his policy from the American people.

The Cuban debate was still in progress at 2 o'clock. Mr. Morgan speaking on the long series of indignities against Sanguly. Mr. Morgan asserted that the queen of Spain had been driven to grant Sanguly's pardon because she shrank from the collision which the senate's action would bring. Mr. Morgan said the pardon would bring joy to the president, who had for two years been on his knees to Spain.

SUED FOR LIBEL. Minister Publisher Who May Be Heavily Punished.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 25.—The first of a series of suits for libel were brought today against Rev. Dr. S. C. Wallow, of this city, editor of the Pennsylvania Methodist journal, for charges of corruption and malfeasance made against high state officials. Mr. Wallow received a telegram this morning from a New York man offering to go bail for any amount below $100,000. Capt. J. J. Delaney, superintendent of public buildings and grounds, is prosecutor in one suit, and Representative W. F. Stewart, of Philadelphia, in the other.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN DULUTH

Official Paper of the City of Duluth. HERALD'S CIRCULATION HIGH-WATER MARK 17,148.

THE WEATHER.

United States Agricultural Department. Weather Bureau. Duluth, Minn., Feb. 26.—A rigorous cold wave prevails in the Canadian Northwest, the Missouri and Red River valleys, the Southern and northern part of the lake region, accompanied by a strong wave of high pressure which has pushed steadily southward and is central this morning over South Dakota. The fall in temperature has been except a slight rise at Manitowish water stations. At 7 o'clock this morning, the temperature was 20 to 30 degrees below zero in Manitoba, the greater part of the Dakotas and Minnesota, and in the Lake Superior region. Outside of the area the temperature ranged upward to 2 above zero at Davenport, Ia. at Chicago, Ill. at Detroit, 22 at St. Louis, and 29 at Memphis.

cause, while it is natural for the people of this section of the state to sympathize with Anoka, it is also a fact that the public interests would be better served by having the hospital at that point.

It is hoped that the members of the senate and house from this district will perceive that it is their duty to stand by the finding of the commission in favor of Anoka.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

Favorable reports have been received from the postmasters in localities in which the rural free delivery system has been tried as an experiment under the direction of the postoffice department, and the announcement is made that Postmaster General Wilson will probably report in favor of the continuance of the system for another year, in order that it may be given a thorough trial.

The Chicago Record regards this decision by Mr. Wilson as cheering news for all who understand the immense benefits involved. Up to the present, it appears, it has been found entirely practicable to adopt rural free delivery even with the country roads in their present condition. The local postmasters where the system has been adopted endorse it without reservation, and it need hardly be said that the residents of those localities are heartily in favor of it.

The cost of rural free delivery is now greatly increased because of the poor condition of the country roads. And on the other hand, the returns have not increased proportionately because it has not been in operation long enough to produce the desired effect of increasing the use of the mails. Both these results would be accomplished in time, and it is to be kept in mind that, just as good roads will help rural free delivery, rural delivery will help the cause of good roads. But the benefits of the plan are not confined to the advantages resulting from an expansion of the postal system. Their real importance cannot be estimated save by those who have experienced the isolation and loneliness of country life, and who understand how much that isolation is a factor in breeding national discontent. The gain to be derived from putting every American citizen into daily contact with the world would alone compensate in this way for whatever increased cost might be put temporarily upon the taxpayers.

It is safe to predict therefore that rural free delivery will become a permanent feature of the postal service. The only question has been that of practicability, and with the fact demonstrated that the delivery in the country districts can be made cheaply and efficiently the general introduction of the system must speedily take place.

THE DEATH OF STEINIZ.

The Herald published a dispatch a few days ago concerning the death of William Steiniz, the great chess player at Moscow, at the early age of 58. The Springfield Republican says that his sudden death is a melancholy instance of overworked brain-power, which has been not infrequently in the annals of the king of games. The match at Moscow was broken up by the sudden collapse of the great expert's mental powers, which ended in his death in a hospital. It reminds one of Paul Morphy's absolute loss of reason, resulting from the most tremendous strain upon the intellect in his phenomenal performance.

Steiniz was a solitary, built, temperate living man; his play was careful, deliberate, well thought out,—indeed, he was the greatest analyst of chess that has ever been known, and his writings on the subject may be availed of by any studious person to produce in himself a very excellent amateur player. He had studied this magnificent game until there seemed scarcely any anticlimax and promise for the future. He studied chess and defense in all manner of forms; whatever move should be made, he studied out the possible moves to meet it; he slighted nothing, and for thirty years he was triumphant over all competitors. He won the championship of the world in 1886, and retained it until Emanuel Lasker beat him in 1894. He conquered the greatest antagonists—Zukertort, Tschigorin, Anderssen, Gunsberg—not to mention a score of lesser, but still noteworthy players.

When he overcame Tschigorin in 1892 he seemed in full vigor. But in the championship contest between him and the young Hungarian, Lasker, the scholar was evidently disconcerted by the originality and audacity of the youth. Lasker played by inspiration and not by book, and Steiniz lost that vigor of resource in his devotion to scientific study. There were few more charming and attractive men than William Steiniz, and since 1882, when he came across the water and became an American citizen, he has been reckoned a pride of our country.

TAKING BACHELORS.

Rev. John B. Culpepper, a Georgia evangelist, has been addressing audiences in Kansas City on a scheme for the punishment of bachelors. He would have all men who reach the age of 22 without finding companions to support or to support them, as the case might be,—declared criminally negligent and subjected to a fine of $100, the fine to be increased $100 each successive year of bachelorhood until the age of 30, when persistent waywardness should be regarded as a penitentiary offense. In other words, a bachelor 30, having paid to the state the sum of $2900 for his preference to live alone, or his failure to secure the consent of a woman to share his life, should be regarded as an outcast and sentenced to hard labor for life or for a term of years.—Mr. Culpepper is not clear on that point—in order to atone for his crimes against the race and society.

The Kansas City Journal thinks that Mr. Culpepper has not made himself clear as to all the workings of such a law. The punishment for delinquent taxpayers, for example, is not mentioned. It is to be presumed, however, that delinquents would be imprisoned until they gave sufficient bond. The possibility of putting this class of offenders into prison for delinquency or final incorrigibility opens up a new prospect for those women who devote their lives to the reformation of criminal classes. A spinners' reform club might do much to correct the habits of bachelors and secure a remission of their fines. Men with wives to spare could do something toward the relief of those undergoing punishment for having no man.

The Baltimore council threw out the idea that ordinance. It showed its good sense, that the proper way to abate the theater hat nuisance is to use moral suasion, just as it is the best way to promote temperance principles.

The legislators of Michigan the other day had a little fun at the expense of Governor Pingree by solemnly introducing a bill making the "Pingree Peaschlow potato blossom" the state flower.

It may be well to state, in order to avoid possible serious complications, that the Honorable Mr. Justice of the Supreme Court is not the distinguished baritone who will sing at the Lyceum tonight.

IRON SETS THE PACE.

The recent contracts for 1,000,000 tons of steel rails have been followed by natural results—the revival of the iron and steel industries, an advance in prices of steel rails and other iron and steel products and a sympathetic movement of trade in other lines, even the shipping business feeling the new impulse, because 100,000 tons of the new steel rails go abroad, furnishing cargoes for a good many vessels.

Commenting on these evidences of improvement, the Philadelphia Times remarks that, while it is true that there is as yet no large movement of goods in any line outside of iron and steel, country merchants are buying more freely and more confidently; mill-owners are picking up; and business men are paying less and less attention to what the new congress may or may not do and are preparing for a season's business on the basis of existing conditions. Many manufacturers are looking hopefully toward an export market, which makes them rather indifferent to possible tariff changes and more anxious to make goods that can be sold outside of the country at a profit than to compete very vigorously for an overstocked home market.

Whatever is being done in this direction does not as yet make much show in the list of actual weekly sales. It is chiefly preparatory for future trade, but even this sets more wheels in motion among employers and labor. The monetary situation continues favorable for an expansion of trade, for the balance of foreign commerce continues in our favor with an easy money market, as a natural result. Manufacturers and merchants with good financial standing find no difficulty in securing money enough to extend business to the extreme limit dictated by prudence, a condition in itself of great importance in inspiring business confidence.

"With all the increase of actual business, and of confidence in the future, concludes the Times, "there are two conditions that tend to make the prospective business revival wait a little longer, and they are the possibility of a war in Europe growing out of the Cretan imbroglio and the change of administration soon to take place in this country. A general European war would doubtless prove a benefit to the United States from a business point of view, but even more so, if it were restricted to the Balkans, it would be beneficial or otherwise according to something else. The change of administration is not likely to change prices, affect the demand for goods or restrict the supply of available money, but a good many people are waiting until the inauguration is over before settling their coats off for hard work."

The action of the great powers in rushing to the defense of the un-speakable Turk in Crete and commanding Greece to cease military operations in behalf of her people residing on that unhappy island is a shameful spectacle. Of course Greece will be compelled to yield to the powers' command, because she is too weak to resist their combined strength. But if a Disraeli instead of a Salisbury was at the head of the British government no such order would be issued.

One of the mourners at Gen. Joe Shelby's funeral was an old negro named George Miller, who took care of the general's horses during the war. The negro is 85 years of age and a delivery man for a grocer. Shelby saw him as he was put up for sale at Lexington, Mo., a few years before the war and paid $1000 for him.

An Illinois man has discovered a way by which eggs may be stamped upon delivery, so that at any time without the utilization of the candle or the application of the nose. The only difficulty lies in the possibility that the hen who affixes the date upon the advent of the egg may be bribed into anachronisms.

The News Tribune's course since the literary ability of the mayor and its ill-revered references to the grammatical construction of his sentences may be considered by the editors of that paper to be in excellent taste, but the great majority of the people of Duluth will look upon them as evidences of a boorish and self-conceited disposition characteristic of literary pigs.

The Cleveland Leader calls attention to an almost universal error in both the newspaper and cyclopedic statements of William McKinley's birthday, given as Feb. 26, 1844. The correct date is Jan. 29, 1843.

The university towns are after this dissolving administration. Princeton gets Cleveland, Harvard wants Olney, and the Washington and Lee university has asked Postmaster-General Wilson to be its president.

The new Canadian census shows the surprising fact that seventeen in every thousand of the Canadian population were born in the United States. This is even more in the thousand than the number reported from all European countries outside of Great Britain.

The Baltimore council threw out the idea that ordinance. It showed its good sense, that the proper way to abate the theater hat nuisance is to use moral suasion, just as it is the best way to promote temperance principles.

The legislators of Michigan the other day had a little fun at the expense of Governor Pingree by solemnly introducing a bill making the "Pingree Peaschlow potato blossom" the state flower.

It may be well to state, in order to avoid possible serious complications, that the Honorable Mr. Justice of the Supreme Court is not the distinguished baritone who will sing at the Lyceum tonight.

A bill introduced in the Connecticut legislature throwing various restrictions around bicycle riding defines the wheel as a vehicle propelled by foot or hand power.

In some of the large cities of Europe, with smalls of proportion, it is said that 100,000 are required to furnish rapid transit for 14,000 microbes an hour.

With Mr. Towne at its head, the new Silver Republican organization will not drop into a somnolent condition.

SENATOR HANNA.

St. Louis City Journal: Mark Hanna has demonstrated that he is a good proponent of senatorial reform.

Governor Bushnell comes down very generally in his announcement that he will appoint Charles A. Hanna as his successor. We will all try for his sake to believe that he never had an idea of appointing anybody else.

The wisdom of appointing Mr. Hanna to succeed Mr. Hanna is clearly in the eyes of all. Mr. Hanna displayed an unprejudiced and a generous spirit in his selection, and it must be said that all the circumstances, this action is creditable to Governor Bushnell.

Indiana Journal: Governor Bushnell has demonstrated that he is a good proponent of senatorial reform. He has appointed a senator to succeed Mr. Hanna. The governor has not seen fit to yield his own prejudices, and it must be said that all the circumstances, this action is creditable to Governor Bushnell.

THE FAMOUS SHOE STORE

111 WEST SUPERIOR STREET. LINES TO A SMILE. YOUR UNCLE PAUL'S BILL.

Truth: Uncle—Bobby, I suppose you've been a good little boy? Bobby—No, I haven't. Uncle—Why, I hope you haven't been very bad. Bobby—Oh, no; just comfortable.

Life: "I wish my daughter had eloped with the coachman, instead of marrying the worthless politician, who is making her a laughing stock." "Never mind, Mrs. Goldrick, perhaps she will yet."

Boston Transcript: Miss Elder (speaking of her favorite bird)—Really it is more intelligent than any other bird. I have noticed it always sets up a chatter as soon as anybody begins to sing or to play on the piano.

Philadelphia North American: "Confound it," exclaimed Carson, "that office boy never around when he is wanted." "What a splendid policeman he would be," murmured Phillips.

Somerville Journal: "The dearest spot on earth is home," sings the poet; and, indeed, it is a matter of fact many of us find it so. Detroit Journal: "Behold!" exclaimed the good fairy, "I touch thee with my wand and transform thee from beggar to king." "Subsequently, however, his beloved touched him without any wand, and made him a beggar again."

Detroit Free Press: "No, daughter, just tell the young man that he can never take you such riling with a sleepy-looking horse like that." "Nothing of the sort. It's just common sense. It is plain to see that the horse was chosen because he can be driven with one hand."

Chicago Tribune: "Alderman will have observed the sentimental member of the present. He is a faithful and industrious fellow. He is a better man than any I know of. He is a man of intemperance in honor." "Wouldn't it be better," said the practical member of the party, "to add a little more tin to his salary?"

Washington Star: "William," said the teacher can you tell me anything about the shape of the earth?" "Yes, sir," replied the pupil, "it is round." "Only what my father found out in the new world."

THE BIG PLUMS. Springfield Republican: When it became known that Gen. Horace Porter was to be minister to France, the hope of Chauncey M. Depew that he would be made ambassador to the court of St. James passed under an eclipse. It is now as good as settled that Col. John Hay, who might profitably have been taken to reinforce John Sherman in the state department, will succeed Mr. Bayard in that position. It has long been an open secret that ex-Governor Merriam of Minnesota might expect something to his liking, so that the story giving him the Austrian mission may be well based. Our Gen. Draper might have the Italian mission, and so these big plums are dropping nicely thickly. Popular curiosity is going to be early satisfied with regard to most of the important places.

TREAT THEM GENTLY. Superior Leader (Rep.): Do not be too hard on the old Democrats who affect to believe that the tariff was not passed by a majority of people the last election, and that 1891 had been the sole issue of the campaign. They have lost. They must be allowed some liberty of expression, some indulgence in nonsense, but they understand the election returns of 1888, and are 100% in error. They are aware that had the platform of 1888 been the same as those of 1882, the victory of the Republicans would have been more pronounced than it was on the issues as actually presented.

JUGGLER
Marvelous Feats of Cinquevalli the French King of Jugglers.
His Tricks are New and Performed by No Other Artist.
Seemingly Impossible Feats Done by Cinquevalli With Greatest Ease.

Some men were born to explore; others to write, or paint, or fight, says the Strand Magazine. Paul Cinquevalli was born to juggle. As a boy at school he would throw his slate and pencil high into the air, catch the pencil first, and then swiftly draw the letter "A" in three lightning strokes while the slate was yet in the air.

Therefore it is not to be wondered at that the boy presently ran away from home with a professional gymnast, whose discerning eye saw a fortune in the little fellow, Paul, by the way, adopting the name of his new guardian.

Soon he made a name, and his father, reversing the proverb, came to him and fell upon his neck. Although rather below medium height, Paul Cinquevalli possesses enormous strength; his patience is almost incredible, and his vigilance surpasses that of any other juggler.

The feat with which he usually commences his performance calls for all these things. The juggler comes on in the stage wearing the spiked helmet and carrying four sections of a jointed pole. The tubs then brought on. He would bring it on himself only it is a thing one cannot carry about conveniently. It is a family tub, and weighs forty-four pounds. The juggler places it on one section of the pole, and makes it spin, when its velocity is such that he commences to lengthen the pole by fitting the other sections; and at last the lower end of the pole is resting on his shoulder, while the tub is revolving mainly some twenty-five feet above his head.

Even so far, this is no ordinary feat of nerve and strength; but what follows would be absolutely incredible were it not that multitudes have seen it done. Cinquevalli deliberately dashes away the pole from the tub, causing the latter to fall in a perfectly straight line. The great juggler braced himself for a tremendous catch, and with a single heave, he dexterously catches the huge tub on the spike of his helmet. And there the tub is revolving. But only consider the thing. A forty-four pound tub falling twenty-five feet onto a man's head! Cinquevalli says: "My friend, Cinquevalli to me, 'the tub sends me flying across the stage, and nearly breaks my neck with the whirling in fact."

OREGON'S TIE-UP. POPE AS MEDIATOR.

No Probability of a Special Legislative Session. Archbishop of Athens Wants Leo to Act.

Salem, Ore., Feb. 27.—Governor Lord, who asked whether he would call a special session of the legislature in the event of the failure of the house to secure an organization, said: "Your inquiry touches a point that I have not reached in my calculations. I have been anxious that the legislature should effect an organization and proceed to matters of legislation, and I have been ready when officially notified to cooperate with the legislature in giving the people remedial legislation."

"This organization of the legislature is a matter that rests with the members of the legislature and not with the executive department. If the legislature should fail to organize under existing conditions, when the crying needs of the state are so well understood and demanded by the interests of the public, it would be due to the existence of causes that would seem to make it useless to call the legislature together for some time, or at all."

LEE INSULTED.

A Fiery Little Don Calls Him Bad Names.

New York, Feb. 27.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana, Cuba, says: The Marquis De Palmerola made a scathing personal attack on Consul General Lee Wednesday night, in the presence of several newspaper correspondents. The incident arose because the honor refused to pass a dispatch for the correspondents which demanded because he was over-annoyed and kept in prison in defiance of the law.

"Who told you that," shouted Gen. Palmerola, the secretary of state for the island.

"Gen. Lee," replied a correspondent calmly. "Lee is a liar, impostor and rebel," shouted the little marquis with an oath.

This incident is telegraphed merely to show how the wind is blowing in the palace, and to let you see what must be the attitude and position of an ordinary citizen here when the consul general is reviled openly in such a manner by one of the heads of the government here.

The dance was attended by about 250 young men and women of the little town, and Mexican liquors were freely used.

About midnight the whole crowd was dancing and the excitement was very freely used, with the above result. The authorities of the district arrived on the scene after the affray and administered to the wounded, and are in pursuit of the few remaining members of the party.

Mr. Durand was a very prominent member of the First Baptist church, and he succeeded in inducing many of the members of his church in schemes which he claims would yield large dividends. He did not resign, but he was a very successful trader, and was largely interested in real estate operations. Some persons he induced to sign contracts to buy stocks in his tempting schemes.

D. special to the Dispatch says: After a bitter fight in the United States court at day yesterday and several hours of fruitless discussion last night, the different interests connected with the Russell & Miller Milling company, of West Superior, North Dakota, got together this morning and agreed to a settlement whereby the Northwestern National bank, of Minneapolis, would receive the property of the company, including the mill, and the bank would assume the debt of the company.

Tennis was president of the defunct Northwest National bank of Superior and is well known in financial circles.

A blaze started this morning at 10 o'clock in the upper story of C. F. Sundstrom's store, Main street. This building and the adjacent business block, formerly occupied by H. J. Alkison, and Peterson's hall, are now in ashes.

Seven or eight business places immediately adjoining Peterson's will surely be consumed, as a strong wind is blowing towards them.

The fire department has nothing but a hand engine and a few hundred feet of hose to fight the fire. A steamer and 2000 feet of hose is now on way by special to Michigamme. Assistance will also be sent from other towns near here.

Peters, occupied the "Virginia," the private car of President-elect McKinley, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, the other members of the governor's staff following in Pullman cars.

RUIZ WAS NOT MURDERED. Madrid, Feb. 27.—The Premier, Senor Canovas Del Castillo, at a cabinet council, today at which the queen regent presided, declared that the differences with the United States in regard to the prisoners, was without importance. He added that an impartial inquiry into the death of Dr. Ricardo Ruiz, the American citizen who died recently in the prison of Guanabacoa under circumstances which led to the report that he had been beaten to death, showed that the doctor expired from natural causes.

BANKER SCHNEIDER SETTLES. Chicago, Feb. 27.—George Schneider, former president of the National bank of Illinois, has effected a settlement. Everything as to him has been closed up, including his indebtedness to the bank, and his release, which has been approved, is honorable and creditable. OREGON SOLONS.

House Members Hoodwink the Senate Crowd.

Olympia, Wash., Feb. 27.—The appointment to the Kline dispensary bill are rejoicing over what they term the defeat of that measure without the senate being aware of what was taking place. Before the report of public morals committee was made in the senate a majority was to recommend indefinite postponement and Chairman Van Patton was to offer a minority report, favoring the passage of the bill.

Plummer, representing the opponents of the measure, met Van Patton and prevailed upon him to compromise with the majority of the committee by submitting a report providing for a substitute of a dispensary law to the people to be voted upon at the next general election.

When this was agreed to, all members of the committee combined and signed the new report and it was sent to the senate. As a substitute bill was not ready, Plummer offered a motion that the Kline bill be laid on the table until a substitute bill was prepared. The motion was adopted without opposition and the bill went to the table. Friends of the Kline bill were surprised to find later that it was all a preconceived plan, and that an effort will now be made to prevent the bill from being taken from the table for consideration.

INTERCOLONIAL EMPLOYEES.

Angry at Some Recent Dismissals at Moncton.

Moncton, N. B., Feb. 27.—Much dissatisfaction has prevailed among the employees of the Intercolonial railway system during the past few days because of the dismissal of sixty-six men from the repair shops here. Dozens of employees on the road have also been dismissed. Among the men discharged were some who had been employed by the road for upwards of twenty years. Many of them are members of the Car Workers' association and the officials of that organization claim that the dismissals were made because the men voted against the present federal government at the general election.

The executive board of the Canadian Railway Employees' association went to Ottawa to interview Hon. Wilfred Laurier, the premier, and Hon. A. G. Blair, minister of railways and canals. The members of the board claimed that the government had broken its agreement with its employees by not holding an investigation before the dismissals were made. It is understood that the ministers decided to look into the matter.

Matson leaves a family while the other was a single man.

CITY CLERK HANEY.

Minneapolis Official Escapes One of His Charges.

Minneapolis, Feb. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The second indictment against City Clerk Haney, charging him with attempted hoodluming in connection with city coal bids was knocked out in court today as a demurrer. The document failed to state that the city clerk was the custodian of all bids and that it was illegal for him to open them in advance. A new indictment will be framed.

MAY DEFER PAYMENT.

Hayden, I. T., Feb. 27.—Governor Hayden has all but decided to defer further payments of the $900,000 awarded to the Cherokee freedmen until the rolls can be turned to Washington for revision. Although the payment has been in progress for several days, but 100 out of 3000 claimants have been satisfied, owing to the extreme regulations regarding identifications. The deferring of payment will prove a severe hardship to the freedmen.

APPLIES TO TOURISTS.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Charles E. Hyde, of the retail board of trade, said today: "President-elect McKinley has warmly approved of the purposes of the retail dealers' board of trade, the aim of which is to take off the free list the clothing and personal outfit of returning European tourists, and compel them to pay the usual tariff on everything they bring with them from abroad, except what they took with them. He says it would give him great pleasure to sign any act which congress may pass to secure that end."

WILL CURTAIL PRODUCTION.

Providence, Feb. 27.—The Nottingham cotton mills here, the mills of the Waukegan company, the Quinnebaw company, and the Lockwood company, of Waukegan, have begun a curtailment of production. These mills are all controlled by Providence manufacturers, and their affairs are directed from this city. It is not known how long the curtailment will last, but these mills will probably start to fall at about the same time the B. & R. Knight and the old big manufacturers do so.

POLICE LINGUIST.

The police of Kobe, Japan, are, perhaps, the greatest linguists among the police forces of the world, says the New York Sun. Already many of the ordinary patrolmen speak English, French and German. Now the governor of Kanagawa Ken proposes to develop the police training school as the first step in anticipation of the enforcement of the revised foreign treaties. The inspectors and policemen of Kobe are to be taught and trained in the English, French, German, Russian, Chinese and Korean languages as well as in Japanese. The principal of the school is to be the chief inspector of the police, and to policemen in service outside of the city who are pupils of the school, pamphlets called "Police Conversation Book" are to be distributed twice a month or oftener. These are to be supplied also to the policemen of other prefectures at the request of the school. These regulations went into effect on Feb. 1.

FALLING

Flood Situation at Cincinnati Is Better as Waters Are Receding.

Many Homeless People Feel the Cold Weather Very Keenly.

Big Scandal at Louisville, Bankers and Aldermen Are Indicted.

Cincinnati, Feb. 27.—With the mercury at 10 degrees above zero thus shutting up the small ferries of the river, there was increased hopefulness on the part of all kinds of business affected by the flood. The river held its maximum height with unusual tenacity, but now the decline has rapidly set in and it will be much more rapid.

Up to 11 o'clock it had fallen six inches and is going down at the rate of an inch an hour, already the railroads have given notice that they will resume the reception of freight, and within a day or two matters will begin to assume normal conditions.

The cold weather comes hard upon the many homeless people and those submerged, but the extent of distress bears no comparison to that of the floods of 1883 and 1884, when business was almost paralyzed and relief work occupied public attention for weeks.

Waltz Carnival at the Rink Was a Success--Other News.

Last night was a remarkable one in West Duluth for its numerous social events and entertainments of different kinds.

The series of socials being given by the Women's auxiliary of the Temperance union for the benefit of the free reading room at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Pake, a dime social given by Pearl Hildebrand, No. 4, at the Phillips hotel, was a number of minor parties and dances.

The regular meeting of the Duxes of Honor lodge was out short last night, and the members together with called workers from the lodge, and West Duluth, participated in what they called a dime social.

The ladies of the Maccabees fairly outdid their former efforts at entertainment at the Phillips hotel, and their social was liberally patronized. The fare was by the index for having made the largest growth in the state is a handsome emblem, and was admired by all.

Woman's Writes

Believe in Woman's Writings! Of course we do. Who could help it when women write such convincing words as these: "For seven years I suffered with scrofula. I had a good physician. Every means of cure was tried in vain. At last I was told to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which entirely cured me after using seven bottles."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla...cures...

In Duluth's Social Circles

Next Wednesday marks the beginning of the Lenten season. It being Ash Wednesday, and for about seven weeks society will undoubtedly be very quiet. The coming Lent does not always mean the cessation of all social pleasures, however. They will be of a more subdued character and less formal, but there will be little entertainments enough. The present week has not been particularly active. The Henrich concert drew out about all of Duluth society last evening, and it was really one of the most fashionable assemblies seen in Duluth. The Assembly last evening, too, was quite a brilliant affair.

The Assembly last evening gave a charming party at the Spaulding. This was the last before Lent and there will be no party again until the last of April. This gave the party unusual spirit. A number of the young people attended the Henrich concert and afterward went to the party and a large number of the older people went over to look on. The usual program of waltzes and two-steps was played, and Honar's music never was better. Those present were:

A change came over the property last June when the Lyle Mining company, which had struck a snag in putting free milling machinery on a concentrating proposition on the Lyle mine, took hold of the Little American and by careful, quiet work have developed it into one of the greatest and richest gold mines on the American continent today. So quietly has this been done that no one outside of the Little American and its few friends, knew of what was developing right under their noses. But work enough has been done on the property to open up a vast ore body, which it is honestly believed contains at least $2,000,000.

The work on this great property so far has been prosecuted by the general manager, O. A. Watters, of West Superior. The workings to date consists of the old, No. 1 shaft, which is 100 feet deep, but has been abandoned from the present, because the "goephering" of former operators sprang the walls, and caused water to leak in from the lake. The new, or No. 2 shaft, is forty feet deep, put down vertically in the side. From the bottom a cross-cut tunnel was run to the north a distance of twenty-five feet, where a 45 degree incline was sunk twelve feet, and from this point a new shaft was put down forty feet, making the depth level now ninety-seven feet. On the 97-foot level cross-cut has been run twenty-five feet to the north and no wall has been struck. Another cross-cut on the same level has been run south on the vein for a distance of forty feet, and no wall has yet been reached in that direction either, making the known ore body on that level sixty-five feet wide. On the 36-foot level, a drift eight feet wide has been run east a distance of sixty-five feet, and every foot of it is in pay ore. All

REFORM MAYOR OF CHICAGO.

Hon. George B. Swift Among the Endorsers of Paine's Celery Compound.

Men like these, who have won the confidence of their fellow citizens in the weightiest affairs, and are jealous of their reputations for sound judgment, have watched the splendid results from Paine's celery compound in their own families, and knowing exactly the invigorating effect that any sick person may expect from this great nerve regulator and blood purifier, are among the first to unhesitatingly and thankfully recommend the remedy to others for the public good they may do.

Says Mayor Swift: "The use of Paine's celery compound in my family has convinced me that it is a meritorious article. Paine's celery compound restores the nervous energy and regulates the system. It makes the blood pure and capable of carrying an abundance of brain and nerve elements to the weakened parts, and is thus able to permanently break the habit of sleeplessness, nervousness, neuralgia and dyspepsia. Men and women who almost live at their work and are 'run down' and sleepless and incapacitated from doing their best work because of dyspepsia, rheumatism and neuritis, invariably find a permanent relief in Paine's celery compound. Dyspepsia, persistent headaches and disordered liver need prompt attention from Paine's celery compound and permanent cure in Paine's celery compound. It is the most earnest, conscientious remedy persons out of health can employ. Its life-giving effect upon 'run down' nerves and debilitated blood is nothing short of marvelous."

Professor Edward L. Phelps, M. D., L.L.D., brought to the study of nervous disorders and diseases, invariably extraordinary professional enthusiasm concentrated upon the discovery of accurate remedy for these diseases all their energy. Paine's celery compound is used by the best physicians in their own homes and prescribed to sufferers from all nervous diseases. It is within the reach of everyone.

MILLIONS IN SIGHT.

The Little American Mine at Rainy Lake City.

It is a matter of history, a fact undeniably and indisputable, says the Rainy Lake Journal, that the discovery of the Little American gold mine at this city late in the fall of 1885, by George W. Davis, an American prospector who was grubstaking by Charlie Moore, of Rat Portage, was the real starting point of the gold mining boom now raging all over the northern woods. The history of the mine since its discovery has been varied, and up to the present, disappointing. It was purchased from Davis and Moore by the late Jeff Hillard for the Beaver Mining company, and was organized in Duluth. During the year 1894 work was begun in an unscientific and haphazard way. Then John B. Welton took hold of it, but his capital was limited. A change came over the property last June when the Lyle Mining company, which had struck a snag in putting free milling machinery on a concentrating proposition on the Lyle mine, took hold of the Little American and by careful, quiet work have developed it into one of the greatest and richest gold mines on the American continent today. So quietly has this been done that no one outside of the Little American and its few friends, knew of what was developing right under their noses. ONE COOL

Has Not Been Dissolved But Is Confronted With Complex Situation.

Probability That Only the Carnegie Mines Will Operate This Year.

President Bacon Says No Reduction of Wages Has Yet Been Made.

The iron ore situation is more critical now than it has been for many years. The outlook for mine owners is anything but encouraging. While it is true that heavy orders for steel rails, bars and ingots have been received by the manufacturers, it is also true that they have been accepted at greatly reduced prices, which means a corresponding reduction in the prices of iron ore. The members of the ore pool are in a serious dilemma, and have found it difficult to continue their organization, the interests being so diversified and conflicting under the changed conditions that a basis for harmonious action is difficult to reach.

The Herald is authorized to state that the ore pool has not been dissolved, and the probabilities are that it will be reorganized at the adjourned meeting in Cleveland Monday on a basis of $2.65 a ton for ore, which last year sold for $4. This will be done with no restrictions on the output, the heavy restrictions to deter mine owners from extensive operations. There will be no exacting equal in the prices of output for Mesaba ore. In fact it can be stated definitely that the Mesaba mines will be included in the pool, for the price agreed upon, one cannot be sufficient to deter mine owners from extensive operations. There will be no exacting equal in the prices of output for Mesaba ore. In fact it can be stated definitely that the Mesaba mines will be included in the pool, for the price agreed upon, one cannot be sufficient to deter mine owners from extensive operations.

The reasons for this are obvious. It is a well known fact that the largest producer of ore on the Mesaba has contracted with the largest consumer in the United States for its entire product. This contract is made at a figure that is exactly equal to the actual cost of production, it being specified in the contract that the ore shall be hauled from the Duluth and Northern railroad at the rate of 90 cents a ton, the freight constituting all of the profit that the owner of the mine and road will realize. As ore can be produced from the mines of this company at a lower rate than is possible by any other mine on the Mesaba, it will be seen that no other mine can compete with it. The purchaser of this output may furnish ore to other furnaces in exchange for steel plates and ingots, so that practically all of the product comes an active competitor against other Mesaba mines in the open market. When the contract was made, the possibilities of the discovery of mines from which ore could be taken at less than the rate of 90 cents a ton were taken into consideration, and Mr. Carnegie's interests were protected by a clause which provided that no ore to him should not exceed the actual cost of producing it in any mine on the range. The result of this is that in all probability no mines on the Mesaba range will be operated this year.

The mine owners on the Michigan range have already taken steps to reduce the cost of production to meet the reduction in prices that has been practically agreed on by the pool, and wages of labor have been cut in most of the mines from 10 to 12 1/2 per cent. It has been reported that similar reductions were contemplated by the Mesaba iron company and the Consolidated.

D. H. Bacon, president of the Minnesota Iron company, when asked concerning this today, said that the question had not been under consideration, and that he could not say what would be done. Further than this he would say nothing. It is very likely, however, that when the pool takes formal action at its meeting Monday, and the price is forced to adopt a policy of retrenchment to enable them to produce ore at a profit, and about the only way in which any considerable saving can be made must be at the expense of labor. It would follow that a reduction in wages would be made at least to the extent contemplated on the Michigan range must come if the Minnesota mines are to be able to compete with them.

DEMURRER SUSTAINED.

A. W. Hartman Wins in a City Suit.

Judge Moor yesterday afternoon filed an order restraining the demurrer in the case of the city against A. W. Hartman and his bondsmen, in which the city sought to recover $10,000 damages for the alleged failure to carry out his contract to take a $200,000 issue of war bonds. He accompanied the decision by a long memorandum in which he states that the liability of a surety is not to be extended by implication beyond the precise terms of the bond. To the extent and manner pointed out in his obligation he is bound and no further. The bondsmen were bound that Hartman should take $100,000 of the bonds each month, and Hartman's failure to do so was a breach of the contract. The tender of $200,000 in May instead of $100,000 in February and $100,000 in April, was not according to the contract. The contract was also made "subject to one attorney's examination and a satisfactory report from them as to the legality of the issue." This court holds it is a condition precedent to the liability of the defendant, and for all these reasons the demurrer is sustained.

FAVOR THE BILL.

A Measure Which Meets the Workingmen's Approval.

The passage of the bill making it a misdemeanor for an employer to require employees to take out indemnity or accident insurance will relieve the sevenmill employees from a heavy burden, members of organized labor say. According to statements made in this connection, the practice has grown up among the proprietors of sawmills of making it obligatory upon their employees to take out accident policies which only protect the owner of the mill and road, since being, however, nearly if not quite as expensive as a health indemnity. This, the men contend, is a protection to the employer rather than to the employee. The bill would require such that, after taking out the money on their insurance, they have not much left with which to pay for insurance. The bill would also require that the bill be more of a benefit to themselves and their families. The bill would also require that the bill be more of a benefit to themselves and their families. X RAY EXPERIMENT.

Prof. Woolman Made One Upon an Arm Today.

A successful experiment with the X-ray was conducted at the high school by Professor Woolman this morning. An excellent photograph of the bones of a lady's arm just above the wrist. They were not seen by the eye and were not set perfectly, the arm projecting about half an inch out of line, the result being that it was impossible to use the hand freely. It was desired to see if the matter could be remedied, and the result was a demonstration that it can be remedied, that both bones of the arm were out of line.

MINNEAPOLIS AFTER IT.

Will Try to Get the Bospiel Next Year.

The greatest of friendliness exists between the Duluth and Minneapolis curlers. A few days ago Alexander MacRae, secretary of the local club sent the following letter to the Minneapolis Journal: To the Sporting Editor of the Journal: In your issue of the 23rd inst, you give an account of the capture of the forfeit medal which represents the state championship by the rink skipped by J. Salisbury. I am very much pleased to see the medal won by Minneapolis and especially by Mr. Salisbury. I formed part of a rink that played against him in a friendly match, and have due respect for his prowess as a curler. I hope this success will bring Minneapolis into the curling pleasures and possibilities of the greatest of winter sports, "the roaring game." Minneapolis should have a curling club second to none in the United States or in Canada either, for that matter. The curling clubs of Minneapolis should be held there in the near future. I can assure the Minneapolis curlers on that point. I am sure they will receive the support of the Duluth club in their request.

There have been several informal conferences with the business men of this city as to the advisability of holding a curling tournament here, and the majority of them seem to think that if anything in the line of a winter carnival will be held in Minneapolis, it should be done in connection with the Northwestern association's bonspiel. It has not been generally known that the curling clubs of Minneapolis have been in the city for some time, but there now seems good reason to believe that the next bonspiel will be held in Minneapolis. The better quarters than the exposition building could not be secured for such a gathering as this. There are good quarters there available for warming and luncheon, while any number of curling clubs could be accommodated on the floor. In any event that might be made to secure the bonspiel for 1908, the Minneapolis curlers whose position is that of St. Paul, as well as that of Duluth, Winnipeg would welcome the opportunity to play in the city. The curling clubs of Minneapolis have a right to have their own bonspiel, and it is hoped that they will have it.

Surprised a Little Girl.

Miss Margaret Smollett, a wee and sweet little daughter of Police Officer Smollett, enjoyed a very pleasant and agreeable assemblage of her young and older friends upon the anniversary of her third birthday last Saturday. It took place at the residence of her parents, 71 East Superior street. An ordinary sized table was filled with presents suitable to the occasion. There were children's games, and the children were given a very enjoyable time. The party was managed by the mother, who acted as hostess for the amusement of the little guests.

THE CITY OFFICES.

Aldermen So Far Have Failed to Get Together.

It begins to look as if the aldermen will be unable to fix a date for the city offices and that the matter will have to be fought out in the council. The questions of committees and the presidency of the council are vexing their souls also. A caucus was held yesterday afternoon, at which all these matters were discussed, no agreement on any of the questions being reached. The question of selecting the committee and a president who will appoint to the committees the men agreed upon at the meeting yesterday. In addition to the members of the council, the city as vice president of the old council places him in line for the place. Cochran and Shannon are candidates for the chair.
